

Reading Aloud to Children Workshop for Parents

NBDCS
The Book Council

OBJECTIVE

The workshop aims to help parents and other adults learn why and how to read aloud to children of all ages. By reading aloud to children, we can help to improve children's reading skills, build their knowledge and increase their love for reading. At the same time, we forge bonds with the children.

COURSE OUTLINE

The workshop leader will explain why to read aloud to children and discuss how to select books for reading aloud. The main part of the workshop focuses on how to involve children as we read aloud to them. This includes connecting the book to children's lives, discussing the book with them and helping to build their language skills.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Parents and other adults who love children
